Old Business

NYSSBA Annual Convention and Educational Expo

President Stris reported on the NYSSBA Annual Conference he attended with Trustee Pomerantz and Trustee Chiachiere on October 12 through October 14, 2017. The Commissioner of Education was among the speakers and spoke about the Board of Regents adoption of the Next Generation K-12 English Language Arts and Math Standards.

Key takeaway from the conference include:

- The Commissioner described the process of review and feedback that supported the Next Generation Standards adoption, including the opportunities for input from educators and parents.
- In order to support a deliberate and unrushed transition to the Next Generation Standards, New York State is delaying implementation of new assessments until 2021, allowing a gradual implementation period for the Next Generation Standards.
- Until 2021, shortened versions of the current grade 3-8 ELA and Math New York State Assessments will be in place. Both Math and ELA New York State Assessments Grades 3-8 will take two days instead of three to administer.
- Every question on the shortened Grades 3-8 New York State Assessment will be selected, reviewed, or written by New York State teachers before the test is finalized.
- Until 2021, Grades 3-8 ELA and Math Assessments will assess the standards that remain the same from Common Core to Next Generation only.

Law Conference

- Resolution #9 on PILOT (Payment in Lieu of Taxes) passed. It stated “Resolved that the New York State School Boards Association support legislation which would amend Article 18-A of the General Municipal Law to permit school districts, at their option to be necessary parties to Payment in-Lieu-of-Taxes (“PILOT”) agreements.”
- The Associations by-laws were amended to expand membership on the Board of Directors to include the New York State Caucus of Black School Board Members.
- Other items discussed at law conference included:
 - ✓ Shift in Federal Education Policy;
 - ✓ School Districts Responsibility towards Undocumented Students;
 - ✓ School Board member free speech rights;
 - ✓ New laws that affect education;

- ✓ Staff emails and text to parents and students; and
- ✓ The new Plan on how the State of New York will implement the Federal law entitled “Every Student Succeed Act”.

Many interesting workshops were held. One in particular was the Friday, October 13th entitled “Shared Leadership: The Boards Presidents/Superintendent Partnership” presented by Superintendent Bill Heidenreich, VSCHSD and Trustee Frank Chiachiere.

New Business

Trustee Pomerantz attended the New York Teacher’s Summit held at SUNY Old Westbury on Monday, October 9, 2017. Valley Stream Thirteen’s Instructional Math Coach, Mr. John Frias presented a workshop entitled “Developing Authentic Learning the Productive Struggle”. It was an excellent presentation regarding the misconceptions of students’ struggles in the classroom in the area of mathematics.
