WARNING

Any person or persons, who willfully provide false information regarding residence, may be subject to criminal penalties. Making a false statement regarding residence or entitlement to a tuition-free education from the district is punishable as a 'Class A' Misdemeanor. In addition, if it is determined that a registrant's child resides outside of the district, the district may take legal action to collect tuition charges. Such tuition charges may exceed $15,000 per year if the student is not legally entitled to receive a tuition-free education from the district. The district reserves the right to investigate any student's residency by any legal means available, including but not limited to public records, site visits and other lawful methods of investigation.
